

Key Points:-

* In KTG, formulas involving 'v' (small v), it is used for speed and not velocity.

* At a given temperature,

$$0 < v_{\text{gas molecule}} < \infty$$

* At a given temperature, area enclosed between curve and velocity axis represents total number of molecules.