

Q2. Will the reflected rays converge at a point when a parallel beam of light is incident on a concave mirror of large aperture?

Answer: No. The paraxial rays are focussed at the principal focus F while the marginal rays meet the principal axis at points closer to the pole than the principal focus. This is called spherical aberration.