

Question 4. Which of the following pairs represents anomers?

Solution: (c) The isomers which differ only in the configuration of the hydroxyl group at C-1 are called anomers and are referred to as  $\alpha$ - and  $\beta$ -forms.