

- Always remember these six formulas and try to remember how it derived , they can be used in every question or at least try to remember
- In any formula if in place of x it is $(ax+b)$ then the result will be $1/a$ times normal result
- Remember this substitution $(x+1/x)=t$