

1. Work Hard and be Stress – Free

He believes that to be successful in JEE, you have to work hard and you have to be stress- free during the preparation. This ensures greater probability of clearing the JEE with a top score. The key elements for his success are hard work, confidence and preparation without any pressure. He is one of those brilliant minds, who decided to be an engineer in his childhood. Since beginning he is a computer enthusiast and gamer and hence recognised the love for computers very early - Devansh Garg - AIR 19 - 2017

2. Make a time table and distribute it equally to all subjects

He had a clear- cut strategy for JEE preparation and it is the focused preparation that led him to get into top 50 rankers in JEE Advanced. He advises all the candidates to make a proper time table with equal distribution to all the subjects. A sensible and organized plan is the way to success. Coming from the IIT Kharagpur zone, he is among the very few of the top 100 rankers in JEE Advanced - Debaditya Paramanik - AIR 38 - 2017

3. Concentration Hard During the Subject Preparation

He tells JEE aspirants that they must concentrate hard on the subjects they study. You should not count the number of hours you studied but count the number of hours during which you studied with full concentration. Being the child of a teacher, he was studious since his childhood and idolised his father, who motivated him to succeed in JEE Main and Advanced. He enjoys his studies and it is his desire to succeed that helped him get a top score in the JEE - Suraj Yadav - AIR 5 - 2017

4. Teachers are the Real Guides

He was a bright student from the beginning and has proved his brilliance in the JEE Advanced Exam by bagging the topmost rank in 2017. He says that two years are enough if you prepare with dedication and three years is good if you want to score the best. He tells to follow the teachers blindly as they are the real guides and mentors - Sarvesh Mehtani - AIR 1 - 2017

5. Analyse and Work on Weak Areas

He started his preparation only in class 11 and devoted 5 hours to JEE preparation initially. He tells JEE aspirants to improve by analysing and working on weak areas. According to him the students should never concentrate on marks and ranks but only on the preparation. The marks and ranks follow according to the preparation. He came to know about that JEE Advanced is the toughest engineering exams in the country and hence wanted to test his abilities - Sourav Yadav - AIR 6 - 2017

6. Only Knowledge will help in Future

Being the girls' topper in 2017, she is hoping to motivate other girl students to take up engineering and prove their abilities. Her advice to the future JEE aspirants is to clear the basic concepts and remain calm during the JEE preparation. She tells that ranks are merely a number and it is only the knowledge you gain during the JEE preparation that will help in the future - Ramya Narayanaswamy - AIR 35 - 2017

7. Underline Important Points while Studying

He attributes his success to parental support, strategy of preparation and knowledge exchange among his peers. He engaged in group studies to clarify all his doubts and understand the concepts better. He advises JEE aspirants to utilize their time properly and underline and highlight important points while studying. They should always maintain a healthy competition with their peers. He tells students to discuss with their peers to learn numerous problem-solving techniques. This Jaipur boy comes from a middle class family and his main source of motivation was his father, who is an engineer - Aman Bansal - AIR 1 - 2016

8. Have a Positive Attitude towards the Exam

She is one of the girl toppers in 2016 and has also bagged an AIR among the thousands of students. Being a girl she doesn't think she is inferior to any of the boys who have cleared the JEE. She tells all the aspirants to have a positive attitude towards the exam and always relax during the preparation. These IIT topper tips from a girl are definitely going to motivate some girl aspirants of JEE. She tells before starting to prepare for JEE, students have to make a time table and follow it regularly - Riya Singh - AIR 133 - 2016

9. Do Not Study For Longer Hours

Coming from Haryana, Bhavesh has unique mantra to success as he tells that, to achieve success you don't have to make a long- term plan or follow a fixed routine. His advice to JEE aspirants is to understand the concepts and clear them before taking practice tests. He tells students not to study for long hours as it would lead to stress and fatigue. He tells all the aspirants to understand the theory of a topic and then practice the problems - Bhavesh Dhingra - AIR 2 - 2016

10. Make a Perfect Study Plan

According to him, you should make a perfect study plan and at least give 4 to 5 hours to all the subjects including Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. He also says to take breaks in between the subjects to avoid any confusion. The important thing for him is relaxation that helps learning in a significant manner. Being from a modest family, the success journey of Mital was a tough one. - Sharvik Mital - AIR 29 - 2016

11. Plan to Complete the Syllabus on Time

It is very important to know IIT Toppers Study Plan so that the JEE aspirants can get motivation from them. Krishna Reddy shares his tips for the students and tells about his study plan. He says that students should plan most of the things for JEE preparation as that will give them enough time to complete the syllabus on time and allow them to revise all the topics. - Satti Vamsi Krishna Reddy - AIR 20 - 2016

12. Do Not Rush to Solve the Paper during the JEE

According to him the road to success is hard to travel and there are numerous students, who get the feeling of quitting in the middle of their preparation. For him, motivation is important for one's success in IIT JEE. He says that candidates rushes to answer the questions in the JEE exam and he considers it as a wrong practice. He advises candidates to first look at the paper and to make a strategy before starting to solve the questions. He also tells to work hard on all the topics during the JEE preparation. - Ishan

Tarunesh - AIR 33 - 2016

13. Take It Easy and Take a Break Between the Tests

He tells that he never aimed to become a topper but wanted to give his best shot. His advice for future JEE students is to take it easy before the JEE exam and take a break between the tests. He is from a very humble background and belongs to Ahmedabad in Gujarat. His father being a professional, he got all the motivation and inspiration from him. - Bharat Khandelwal - AIR 5 - 2015

14. Follow Better Books for JEE Preparation

He instructs JEE aspirants to be positive and follow the dreams. It is also important for the candidates to follow good books for JEE preparation. He used to follow coaching materials and gave regular mock tests that helped him in solving the questions quicker. Coming from a family where everyone is related to science in some way, he was consistent in scoring good marks in the science subjects. - Anjishnu Bose - AIR 26 - 2015

15. Start the Preparation Early

She started preparing from class 11 and advises other aspirants to do the same as it gives them enough time to prepare all the topics. It also allows them to revise them before the exam and revising all the topics twice for JEE is important to score high marks. Being the girls' topper of JEE Advanced 2015, she has inspired numerous other JEE girl aspirants to appear for JEE and pursue engineering for better career prospects. - Krati Tiwari - AIR 47 - 2015