

Tips and Tricks

- Try to be an active reader and problem solver to grasp any concept of any subject. By active I mean consistency. Consistency is everything.
- I have given similar types of problems in problem sections, try to solve them in timed manner. Timing your problem solving can make your study more efficient.
- Solve of lots of problems from other reference books and coaching notes that are given below each video.
- Write down standard functions derivative on a page that can be revised just before exams.
- Another very important thing to keep in mind is the rules of differentiation.
 - See concepts pdf for nice compilation of important theorems and their derivaitive results.